

Socialist countries have some of the most well-off, most equal households with the lowest poverty

OECD Countries

